A year of wealth and success, each individual student striving to make this year a little bigger, a little better, and a little more outstanding than all the rest.

Concord cheerleaders lead Brown and Cannon student bodies in cheers during the season's final pep rally.

Majorettes Cathy McLeod, Judy Davis, Sue Bonds, Becky Reeder, and Judy Carter join the student body in the K.H.S. fight song.

Grappler David Stowe pins a Mooresville opponent to add another win to our undefeated record.

Little Wonder Keith Honeycutt drives for a big gain in Brown's victory over North Rowan.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1964

"A journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step." A step which takes twelve years now neers completion. It has been difficult for us to realize that this is our last year at Brown. Never again shall we walk these same halls with these same familiar people.

Soon we shall part as individuals, and Brown will become a part of our past . . . but lingering to enlighten our thoughts will be the impressions made during this, the richest part of our lives.

"A journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step."

CLASS HISTORY

by Jack Boger

A first look at Brown High School in 1961 gave a different impression from what we were accustomed to, and from what many of us probably expected. Though everything was new and different, the sophomore class soon became an important and active part of the school. New faces, new problems, and new opportunities, together with the unfamiliar yet welcoming atmosphere, easily brought us into the routine of Brown.

As sophomores the Class of 1964 elected Jerry Baker as its class president, Bobby Simpson as vice-president, Sharoyne Absher as secretary, Rocky Fisher as treasurer, and Marla Moore and Harold Nelms as Student Council Representatives. Our sophomore class faculty advisor was Mr. John T. Mast.

Even in the sophomore year members of our class were beginning to take an active role in the leadership of the school. The Key Club accepted Jerry Baker, Bobby Field, Rocky Fisher, and Harold Nelms into its membership. Marla Moore, Jerry Baker, and Bobby Field were tapped into the National Honor Society. In addition to those clubs whose members are elected, members of our class were quick to join nearly every other club in the school.

Near the end of our first year at Brown, Marla Moore was elected treasurer, and Janet Richardson was elected secretary of the student body for the coming year.

We moved into our junior year as a class which had become as much a part of the school and its character as had any class before it. Though not yet possessing the self-assurance and confident attitude which was to come, we were gradually gaining those qualities which come with maturity. After having been at Brown for a year we were in a unique position of anticipation coupled with experience.

Having been through one football season, our cheers were louder and more meaningful the second time, and each of us was a bit prouder when we could say that we were from Brown.

Rocky Fisher was our class president in our junior year, David Brewer was vice-president, Karen Allen was secretary, Harry Hancock was treasurer, and Judy Carter and Bobby Simpson were our council members. Our junior class advisor was Miss Mary Alice Elliot.

When we became juniors, members of our class took on added responsibilities and honors in the school. Jerry Baker was elected vice-president of the Key Club, Harold Nelms was elected treasurer, Bobby Field was elected chaplain, and Bobby Simpson was added to the regular membership. Sharoyne Absher was elected Junior Miss Hi Miss, and Janet Richardson was chosen the only junior member of the cheerleaders. The National Thespian Society took into its membership Sharoyne Absher, Gail Belk, Judy Davis, Becky Reeder, and Ted Slaughter.

The junior year will probably be remembered as one of the best. It was the year our class went to Washington, and it was the year we received our class rings. As a class we sponsored the Junior-Senior Dance, and presented Ask Any Girl as our junior class play.

Near the end of the year Johnny Foutz and Bobby Simpson were elected by the school to serve as president and vice-president of the student body for the coming year. The school selected Marla Moore and Carol Hammett to serve as cheerleaders and Janet Richardson to serve as chief cheerleader. The staff elected Dorothy Whitaker to serve as editor of the school newspaper.

When we at last became Seniors each of us knew that the class had come a long way since it had first entered Brown. There were, of course, visible changes in each of us, but the more important changes were those which could not be so easily seen. We were now older and more mature. Though not lacking in our readiness to have a good time, we were now more able to take on the responsibilities which we were expected to assume.

As seniors we elected David Brewer our president, Janet Richardson our vice-president, Cynthia Kobulnicky our secretary, Sharoyne Absher our treasurer, Pat Kinney our chaplain, Judy Carter and Harry Hancock as our council members. Later in the year Karen Allen was chosen for a council seat. The faculty advisor to our senior class was Miss Loraine Gray.

Members of our class led the school in most areas. David Brewer, Harry Hancock, and Lawrence Braxton were taken into the Key Club, while Jerry Baker was made president and Rocky Fisher was made vice-president of the club. The National Honor Society elected Marla Moore as its president. Sharoyne Absher was elected Miss Brown High, and went on to be crowned Miss Merry Christmas and to become a Carrousel Princess. The school elected Nelda Rich as its Homecoming Queen, and Janet Richardson was chosen May Queen. In the field of athletics, Kenneth Gibson and Rocky Fisher were two of the three captains of our football team.

We chose as our class mascots Kim Renee Davis and Mark Edward Hubbard. Our class motto was "The journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step." Our class colors were peach and gold, and the class flower was the Talisman Rose.

The combined impressions and experiences of the preceding years all go together to make the senior year what it is. It becomes the culmination of our high school careers and the climax of what are probably the most enjoyable and important years of our lives.

The senior year is the most important because it is the year of the greatest accomplishment. When one becomes a senior he has completed twelve years of his education, and he has a right to be proud. It is now that we must make the decisions which will shape our futures, and it is only now that we are able to do so.

But the senior year is a brief thing and it passes quickly. Graduation comes too soon. The thing which we have been working toward so long comes finally as an interruption rather than a relief. But it does come, and we accept it. We cross the stage and receive our diplomas. We become alumni and the Class of 1964 becomes a memory.

THE JUNIOR CLASS

Our junior year . . . how can it be described? A year filled with memorable impressions . . . the year we officially became the Class of 1965 by receiving our class rings. Our long awaited Washington Trip became a reality in April. The excitement of our first Junior-Senior brought to us a feeling of pride. Our own production of a play was a new experience. All these things will be lasting impressions.

The year's end brings a feeling of sadness as we say good-bye to the seniors. Soon we will be seniors and will have the responsibility of leading the school through our final year.

for his assistance selling peanuts at home games during football season.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

This was a year of growth and a year in which we became a part of Brown. Some impressions, though small, are ones which we will treasure.

Our first football game as members of Brown's student body, the smell of peanuts, and the chocolate sale will long be remembered.

The most lasting impression made during our first year at Brown was that of meeting new friends and of participation in the school's activities. After we have grown into juniors and then seniors, more mature and confident, we shall recall this, our sophomore year.

STUDENT ORGANIZATION

"The Forward Look," a presentation enacted by Hugh Stowe, Carolyn Dayvault, Judy Davis, Jack Boger, Jay Stirewalt, Stanley Gilliam, and Keats Dellinger, displays the standing of the "World's Finest Chocolate."

The Student Organization of A. L. Brown High School is the means by which the student body aids directly in the administration of the school. It is the official organ for student expression in matters pertaining to the welfare of the student body. The student organization consists of two bodies. Session House is composed of homeroom representatives and Council is composed of class representatives. The officers of the student body are members of both groups.

The purposes are as follows: To establish and maintain a higher moral standard; to develop intelligent leaders and followers; to insure a spirit of democracy; to promote a closer relationship among the student body, the faculty, and the community; to create a respect and ambition for higher scholastic attainments; to encourage cooperation and participation of students in all school activities.

Standing: J. Stirewalt, C. Biggerstaff, L. Blume, G. Lee.

This year, two individual staffs are serving the school. Although they work separately on the annual and the newspaper, each is dependent upon the other and each is willing to lend a helping hand.

The work is hard and the deadlines demanding, but the purpose, always, is to produce an Albrokan and twelve issues of Brown Beat worthy of representing the school and a year's work.

Sports editors, Joe Honeycutt and Woody Tucker, discuss action shots for the annual with Mrs. Oxendine, staff advisor.

BAND DIRECTORS

Mr. Harvey Turner and Mr. Harold Matherly try teaching chief majorette Judy Carter to conduct Tweetsie during the band's trip to Appalachian.

MARCHING BAND

Another year of football shows and concerts has gone by, and again Brown Band has presented performances which some students classify as "unbelievable." The approximately one hundred and forty piece band is directed by Mr. Harvey Turner.

This year, besides playing for school activities, the band was invited to play for the pre-game show at the A.S.T.C.-Lenoir Rhyne football game in Boone. On this trip they were also invited to spend the afternoon at TWEETSIE with all expenses paid.

The band has brought the school much recognition and also to each member a feeling of pride. It has served as a good-will ambassador from the school to various cities.

The Athenian Chapter of the National Honor Society taps annually students who excel in scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Seniors and juniors may be inducted as members; sophomores, as probationary members.

Major projects of the year have been maintaining a weekly bulletin board in the front hall, making badges for honor roll students, conducting an essay contest for American Education Week, remembering sick and shut-in people in the community with fruit baskets at Thanksgiving, conducting several educational and inspirational programs, and awarding scholarship medals at the end of the year.

ATHLETICS

The '63-'64 football season found the Wanders continuing their climb up the conference ladder. Playing from the "T" formation, the Wanders displayed a well-balanced offensive attack paced by quarterback Rocky Fisher. The defensive team also sparkled as it held South Rawan to a —6 yards rushing in a 22-0 Wander victory.

The homecoming game with Maoresville will be remembered for the rain and the mud. In one of the most exciting, yet disappointing, games of the year, Cancard emerged on the long end of a 20-19 scare to retain possession of "aur" Victory Bell. The Wanders completed the season supporting a 5-5 mark.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The Wonderettes of Brown High were victorious only three times out of the first eight non-conference games of the season. With experienced and skillful players such as Sandy Argo, Edna Smith, Carmen DeMarcus, Pam Brigman and Delores Fox, the girls' team hoped to catch fire and finish the year near the top.

TRACK

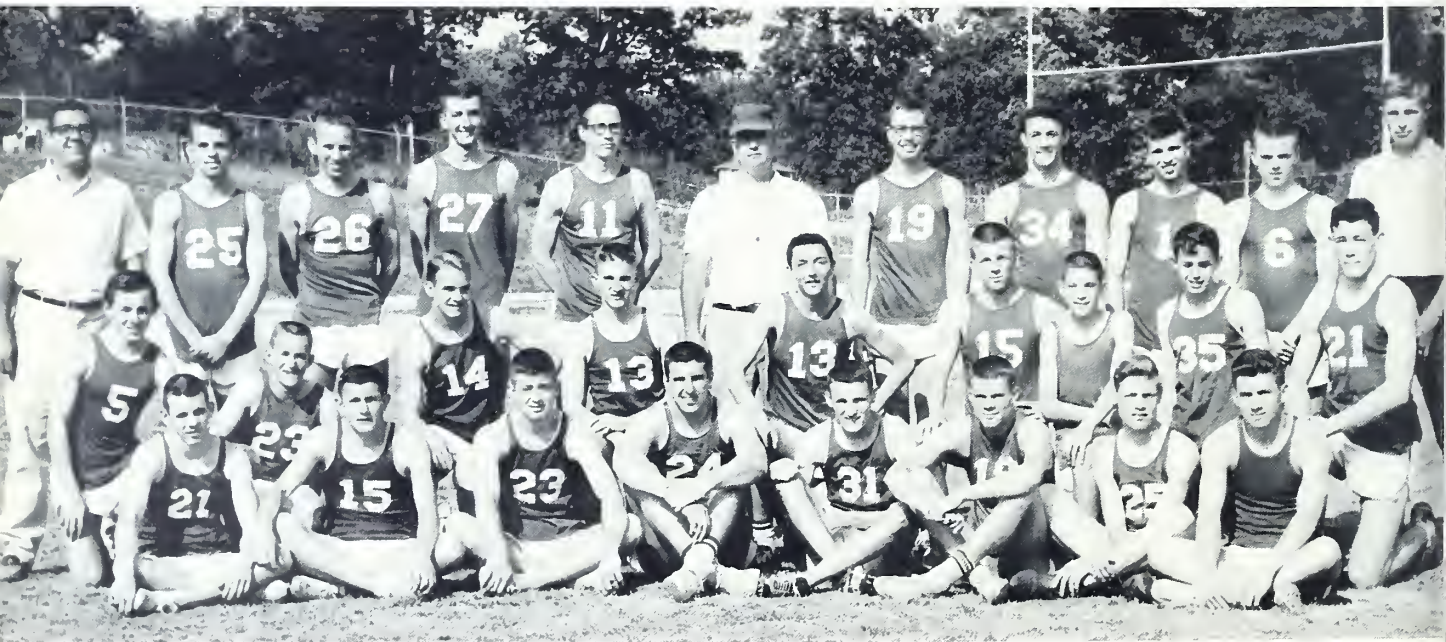

Showing spirit and determination, the charges of Coach Ed Edmiston gained a share of the Southern Piedmont Division track title of 1963 with Statesville. Composed mainly of sophomores, the Little Wonder thinclods showed vast improvement in every event to outdistance such opponents as South Rowan, Albemarle, Statesville, and Hickory. The Wonders placed high in several events at the association meet to provide keen competition for the other teams present.

BASEBALL

The Little Wonder baseball team was again under the direction of Coaches Doug Chalk and Bill Wotts. The Wonders played hard and gave it their all in each game of the 1963 season. They won the respect of their opponents and the student body enroute to a 3-9 conference slate.

FEATURES

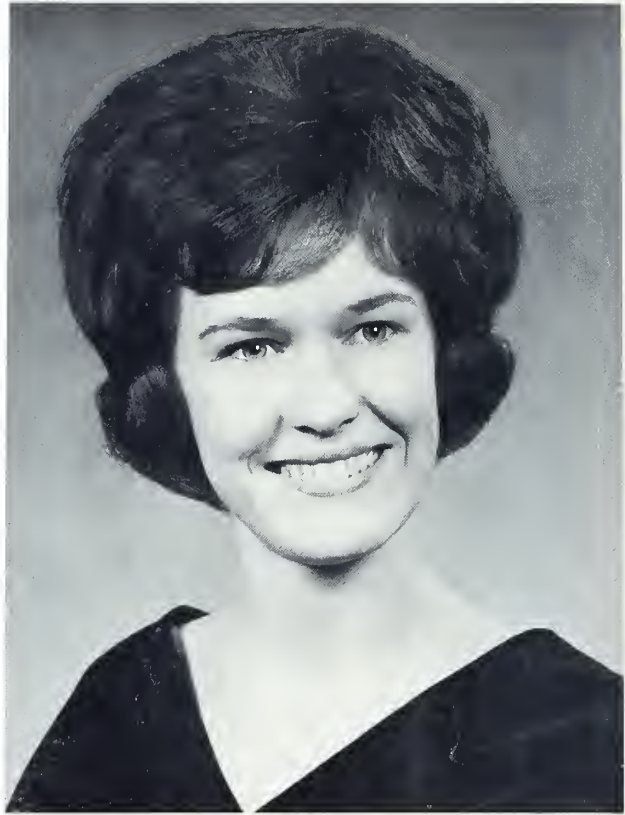

HONOR SELECTIONS

For the first time this year, the junior class chose a Miss Hi Miss, Jone King. The class based their selection on leadership, scholarship, character, and personality. Jone was a guest of Winthrop College in Rock Hill, South Carolina, one weekend this spring.

The Homecoming Queen, Nelda Rich, was chosen from the senior girls by a vote of the entire student body. She was crowned at the Saturday night dance on Homecoming weekend, since rain prevented the usual pre-game activities Friday night.

This year, Sharoyn Absher was chosen by the senior class as Miss Brown Hi. Later she was crowned Miss Merry Christmas and was chosen as runner-up to the Carousel Queen in the Charlotte Carousel Parade.

Janet Richardson, May Queen, was chosen from the senior girls by the entire student body. Her coronation was the highlight of the May Day program held during assembly.
